Day 1

Project Egypt Final Draft: You will need to complete the requirements listed for the project on the Project Egypt Checklist. The final essay and PowerPoint should be turned into the “A Period Ready to Grade” folder on the Blake Server.

1. Click on the Go menu on the desktop
2. Click on Connect to Server
3. Click on papabear.blakeschool.org
4. Scroll down to FacultyMS, open it
5. Scroll down to mramadan folder, open it
6. Drag your completed project files into the “A Period Ready to Grade” folder.

“REMEMBER TO JOURNAL”

Day 2

Project Reflection: You will need to write a reflection about Project Egypt in your journal. In your reflection you should include the following information in complete sentences:

- Describe the highs and the lows of the project.
- Describe what you might have done differently.
- Describe the most interesting thing you learned from someone else’s presentation.
- Describe how doing this project will effect future projects that you do.

Journal Check 4.0: You will need to have completed journal entries since the last journal check on November 20, 2007 through December 17, 2007 (approx. 10-12 entries). Each journal entry should be dated and include a short summary of the class activities and your thoughts of the class on that particular day.

“REMEMBER TO JOURNAL”

Day 3

Egyptian Quiz Bowl Sheet: In order to prepare for the Egyptian Quiz Bowl on Day 4, you will need to complete the Quiz Bowl worksheet (See handout).

“REMEMBER TO JOURNAL”

Day 4

Relax 4.0: You just can't believe it. It is another Holiday break and there are so many things that you could do over the long winter recess. Here are a few suggestions to help:

- Buy a new houseplant and shower it with love.
- Make up sweet nicknames for all of your shoes.
- Practice battle rapping against neighborhood squirrels.
- Build a snow man and name it Mr. Ramadan
- Choose your own adventure.
